DESCRIPTION OF OFFERING:

Jack offers talks, retreats, and sermons on topics related to ways of prayer and spiritual practices. He has given talks for adult forums, senior citizen groups, clusters, prayer groups, and Befriender training. He has led retreats for staffs, church councils, women, men, and adults. The most requested topics are "A Million Ways to Pray"; "Discerning God's Will/Listening to Your Heart's Desires"; "The Four Spiritual Paths and Parish Worship and Program Planning", and "The Spirituality of Aging Using Children's Story Books".

Jack graduated from the Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago. He received a certificate in Spiritual Direction from the Shalem Institute; and he offers individual spiritual direction. He served four parishes in Illinois. He retired from parish ministry in 1999 to begin his free-lance ministry--Living Waters. His mission is to bridge organized religion and spirituality. Jack and his wife, Jan, moved to Stoughton in 2008 and are members of Christ Lutheran Church, Stoughton.
